Following are two resources that can assist with identifying health care coverage options. The first is the non-profit Foundation for Health Coverage Education at www.coverageforall.org providing information and regional guidance for health coverage. The second is the for profit firm of eHealth Insurance Services, Inc at www.ehealth.com who, in partnership with nearly 180 health insurance companies, provide research and comparative analysis of numerous health insurance alternatives.

Submitted by Doug Allen